SANTA CLAUS TOURNAMENT

Big As Ever!!

Three years ago the North Pole Patriot's boys and girls teams outshot the visiting Monroe Rams and Delta Junction Huskies, respectively. in capturing the 1st annual North Pole Santa Claus Christmas Tournament. From three team brackets in 1980, the tournament expanded from a three day affair to a whopping 6 full days last year, with a total of 16 teams entered, with renewed efforts on the part of North Pole's basketball programs, the Booster Club, and Ed Shellinger, the 1982 tournament will see another fantastic week of excellent basketball festivity. Six girls teams will square off Dec. 13, 14, and 15. Visiting North Pole for the third straight girls tourney appearance will be the defending girls tourney champs the Monroe Rams as well as Eielson Ravens from Region VI. New faces in the tournament this year will be the West Valley Wolfpack. Returning from last year are the Fort Yukon Eagles and Sitka Wolves.

The boy's portion of the week long tournament runs Dec. 16-18. The Sitka Wolves return to defend last year's title. Making their third appearance in the tournament will be Monroe and Eielson. The rest of the field will be all new comers to North Pole. From Anchorage comes Abbot Loop Christian and Anchorage Christian, Fort Yukon will bring their boys this year, and the Homer Mariners round out the 8 team bracket.

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the North Pole High School boy's basketball program, I would like to thank the many supporters who made the first annual North Pole Golf Classic Benefit Tournament an overwhelming success. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Benshoof made the whole program possible with their generous donation of Arctic Acres Golf Course and Clubhouse, as well as their valuable organizational help.

The many merchants who donated prizes include: Sunshine Travel, Larson's Jewelers, Spectrum, The T-Shirt Stop, Pizza Pole, Arctic Farm and Garden, North Pole Speedway, American Tire, Uptight Siding, K and L Distributors, Pepsi, The Alaska Goldpanners of Fairbanks and the North Pole Nicks, Chena Hot Springs Resort, Hawks Greenhouse, Aurora World, Santa's Suds, Auto Forum, Avon, Alaska Golf Club Repair and Pro Shop and George Walton's State Farm Insurance.

Of course, North Pole Booster Club president Karen Kiss was there to help out as well. And to the 24 pairs of golfers who braved two days of rain and wind, a deserved thanks for thier support, as well as enthusiasm, is in order.

Finally, thanks to the Sports Department of the News-Miner for their coverage and promotion of the tournament.

Sincerely,

Joe Harshman
North Pole boys basketball coach
